GREATER PRINCE GEORGE'S BUSINESS ROUNDTABLE Welcomes New Members to Our Board of Directors

Recently the Roundtable Board of Directors welcomed three new members. Moving forward to build an alliance of major business stakeholders who have the vision, motivation, resources and opportunity to effect positive change in the political, economic and community environments across Prince George's County, the Roundtable is adding three new stars to the Board of Directors roster. Joining the ranks of fellow business leaders will be, Colonel John Pray, Wing Commander of the 89th Airlift Wing, Andrews Airforce Base, Maryland, Mr. Dean Wilson, Director of Wood Partners of Vienna, Virginia and Reverend John Jenkins, Senior Pastor, First Baptist Church of Glenarden

Currently seated at the Roundtable are key players who define business success within Prince George's County and beyond. Moreover, they are individuals who share a common commitment to their community and the well-being of its residents. The three new board members clearly meet the established criteria, each bringing his or her wealth of wisdom and dedication to the community to the Board.

As well as welcoming new members the Board would like to thank recently departed members for there dedicated service to the Roundtable and Community. Brigadier General David Scott Gray will take command of the Air Mobility Warfare Center, Ft. Dix New Jersey. We would like to congratulate him on a job well done during his command at Andrews and are glad to hear that he has been selected for the rank of Major General. Mr. Gary Murray and Mr. John Pyles also recently departed the Board and we are sure they will continue to do great things for business and the community in Prince George's County.

The Roundtable also includes a Community Advisory Council consisting of civic, business and other community leaders working to create a Strategic Vision for Prince George's County. The Andrews Business Alliance was created last year and is part of the Roundtable's administrative structure. The Board of Directors is chaired by Gary Michael, President of The Michael Companies. The Secretary is Linda Gooden, President of Lockheed Martin Information Technology.
